Chairman Bell called the meeting to order. Mr. Jerry Mayes made a motion to approve the minutes of the January 10th meeting, seconded by Vice Chairman Bolding, approved 4-0.

Chairman Bell asked for comments of from citizen, staff and board. With no comments, the board moved forward with the first item on the agenda.

Mr. Parth Patel represented Aayna Corporation as the owner of Fivestar Market. Fivestar Market is located at 102 Fannin Drive, Goodlettsville, TN 37072. Mr. Patel purchased the property and the business on March 2nd and plans to run the business as is. He is not changing any signage or hours of operation. Mr. Bolding made a motion to approve the beer permit for Aayna Corporation, seconded by Mr. Mayes the board voted 4-0. Aayna Corporation DBA: Fivestar Market is approved for an off premises beer permit.

Ms. Fibi Youssef represented St. George Market #2 for a violation of the of the City of Goodlettsville Municipal Code. Detective Les Carlisle represented the City of Goodlettsville Police Department. Detective Carlisle stated that on February 2nd, 2018 the Metro Police Department and Nashville Prevention Partnership performed a compliance check. The state citation reported that the defendant was working a cash register at 703 Rivergate Pkwy. A 19 year old decoy purchased a beer and the defendant was on the phone and did not ask for an ID. The decoy left the store with the purchased beer. The defendant had no prior arrest history and did qualify for a state citation. Ms. Youssef stated she wasn't there that day but she knows the defendant is guilty. Her employee has worked for her for years and has never sold to a minor in the past. The shell station has received letters in the past from the Goodlettsville Police Department thanking them for not selling to minors. The defendant was issued a class from his Metro court date. The board discussed a prior violation and the actions that could be taken against the permit. Mr. Mayes made a motion to fine St. George Market #2 $2500.00 to be paid in seven days or the license will be revoked. Seconded by Mr. Bolding, the board voted 4-0.

Ms. Kelly Newton represented Dollar General located 1213 Dickerson Pike, Goodlettsville, TN. Detective Carlisle read the state citation from the compliance check performed on February 2nd, 2018 by the Metro Police Department and Nashville Prevention Partnership. The defendant was working at the cash register of the Dollar General located at 1213 Dickerson Pike. A 20 year old decoy purchased a 20 oz bud light lime-a-rita, the defendant looked at the ID and completed the purchase. The defendant stated she should have looked more closely at the ID, she didn't have her glasses on. Ms. Newton stated that she's been the manager at this location for five years and has received letters from the City of Goodlettsville for passing compliance checks and thanking them for not selling to minors. She stated that the defendant misread the ID and even typed the number in the cash register incorrectly because she had misread the license. The register okayed the purchase because of the wrong date. The defendant does have to attend a class from her Metro court date. Ms. Newton has retrained all of her employees and made them aware of how serious a mistake this was. She stated that she was unaware if Dollar General had other classes other than their initial training video when you are first hired. Ms. Newton verified that this was her first offense. Mr. Bolding asked how Dollar General Corporate handles this situation when they find out about it. Ms. Newton stated that often times the employee is terminated or put on final notice, she said they take this very seriously. Mr. Mayes made a motion to fine Dollar General $500.00 to be paid in seven days or the license will be revoked. Seconded by Mr. Bolding the board voted 4-0.

Mr. Jimmy Cantrell represented Cantrell Market located at 600 Rivergate Parkway, Goodlettsville, TN. Detective Carlisle read the state citation from the compliance check performed on February 2nd, 2018 by the Metro Police Department and Nashville Prevention Partnership. The defendant was working the cash register of Cantrell's Market. A 20 year old decoy purchased a 20 oz. Mike's Hard Lemonade, the defendant looked at the ID but didn't type it in the register. Mr. Cantrell stated that they have retrained the defendant and during that incident she bypassed the register birthdate. The defendant is taking a class required by Metro court. Mr. Bolding made a motion to fine Cantrell's Market $500.00 to be paid in seven days. Mr. Mayes seconded and the board voted 4-0.

With no further comments or questions Mr. Bolding made a motion to adjourn. Seconded by Mr. Mayes the board voted 4-0. Meeting adjourned at 9:30.
